

To Hiring Manager of SITA Letterkenny,

It is with great pleasure that I recommend David Adindu for your vacant internship position. David is an excellent team member here in KFC Letterkenny. Since he started here in KFC he has shown to be very hardworking. He has always displayed a high degree of integrity, responsibility, and ambition. He is definitely a leader rather than a follower. In addition to his excellent professional accomplishments, he has proven his leadership ability by leading many shifts here in KFC which you must have the ability to learn fast and take initiative to do.

David is passionate about writing code and solving problems through the development of software. David is very vocal about his software ideas and dreams. He has tremendous potential that is not being fulfilled in his current position. David has also shown to be friendly, easy to get along with, and he is well-liked by our staff and respected by his co-workers.

I hope you will consider David for an internship position at SITA. I am confident that he can meet any challenge you place before him, and I believe you would be exceedingly pleased with his work should you choose to hire him.
